

Campus Ministries at The College of Idaho

Fun. Supportive. Challenging. Deep. Relevant.
Uncompromisingly Christian. These are a few words that describe Campus Ministries at The College of Idaho.

Campus Ministries supports students with tools, vision, support and opportunity to develop their faith through college and beyond.

“Late Night”

Every Tuesday night at 9 pm we create a space for worship, teaching and community called “Late Night.” Late Night is high on energy and low on Christian cliché, with over 10% of the student body involved.

Small Groups

In Small Groups students grow in their faith through Bible Study, committed friendship, and spiritual mentors. You can sign up for a small group online on the CM web page.

Service and Mission

Students have opportunities to serve each year during mid-year and summer breaks. Recent locations include Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Africa, the Gulf Coast, and urban mission.

Scholarships

Students can receive scholarships for leadership in many areas of Campus Ministries including musical talent, technical ability (video or sound) or leadership ability in service or community life. You can fill out an application online on the CM web page.
